Forecast for Saturday 11 Jun 2022

Weather: Largely cloudy with some limited cloud breaks at first, and also patchy hill fog. The hill fog will soon lift, leaving often cloudy conditions but with some sunny intervals this afternoon, and then sunny and clear spells this evening. Scattered showers will arrive through the day, the showers mostly light but an occasional one could be heavy, especially this afternoon.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 60% during the early hours and evening, otherwise 90%.

Low cloud and visibility: Occasional patches of cloud on slopes above 500m at first and again mid-evening onwards, bringing hill fog at times. Otherwise cloud largely clear of the summits. Visibility beneath cloud generally excellent, with only brief deteriorations to moderate in any showers.

Meteorologist's View

Winds will be rather strong on the slopes. Be sure to have appropriate footwear to help keep your footing. When the sun does break through it will be strong, with high UV levels. Therefore sun protection is advised.
